IF YOU HAVE WON YOUR CASE

You of course should be very happy with your lawyers when you have won your case and open the champagne.

The losing party, the insurer has been ordered by the court to pay you your just compensation.

However, when you receive the cheque from your lawyer you get what we call, “BILLSHOCK”.

This is when you do not receive the amount of money you thought you would get from the insurer. You have received a Tax Invoice from your lawyer listing all the items e.g., telephone calls not made, work charged at lawyer rate when you know it was done by a paralegal etc.

You want to check the invoice because you think that you were Overcharged Excessive legal fees.

Dispute Legal Fees can help you.

Our “Shark Hunter” will go through your Tax Invoice ‘Line by Line’ to determine if your legal fees were fair, reasonable and proportionate to your case.

Go back to our home page on our website and complete our “Free Costs Wizard’s Form” and we will call you as soon as we can to discuss your Overcharged Excessive legal fees in your case.

To best help you in your case we need to examine your costs agreement, costs disclosure and costs estimate documents as well as your tax invoice(s) and the final letter from your “Shark Lawyer” finalising your case.

This will enable us to have the most productive discussion with you when we contact you by phone.

If you think you had a lawyer “Shark” don’t delay contacting us as
